

What is a Playtime Voice?

A Playtime Voice refers to the idea that children develop their language skills and communication abilities through playful exploration and engaging activities. During play, children are naturally curious, which allows them to experiment with words, practice social interactions, and express their thoughts and feelings in a relaxed and naturalistic environment.

